

Building a Resilient Bay Area Through Public & Private Leadership Collaboratives: An Emergency Preparedness Training and Roundtable Discussion

March 4, 2010

Are You On The Grid?

A Cross-Sector Training and Roundtable Discussion

The Training and Roundtable Discussion is a professional event developed for cross-sector emergency and business continuity professionals who are subject matter experts. Our audience will provide insight to solutions, problem solving and identifying cross-sector partners.

- How would a regional power failure impact your organization?
- Which external partners do you call?
- What does your plan cover?
- What resources will you need?
- What is the back-up plan for power, communications, gas, or water?
- Are your memorandums of understanding exclusive or mutual?

Goals:

- Recognize that cross-sector planning is critical to your organization's resiliency.
- Identify cross-sector partners that are critical to your organization's sustainability.
- Share best practices and recent learning from past events.
- Create a metrics for essential resources.
- Evaluate whether you have identified critical stakeholders for response efforts.

Thursday,
March 4, 2010
10:00 AM to 2:00 PM

LOCATION:
Alameda County
Office of Emergency Services
4985 Broder Boulevard
Dublin, CA 94568

RSVP by February 26, 2010
Space is Limited

Registration
and Lunch: FREE

For more information contact
Jan McClellan at
(510) 486-7570
JLMcClellan@lbl.gov
Lawrence Berkeley
National Laboratory

<http://www.lbl.gov/ehs/ppls/epw/>

Collaborative Partners—Bay Area Resiliency Network

