Who Can Attend:

Alameda County
organizations including:

- Community-based Organizations
- Faith-based Organizations
- Emergency Managers
- Hospitals/Clinics
- Skilled Nursing Facilities
- Schools
- Businesses

Please join us for a one-day forum designed for Alameda County organizations wanting to learn more about current pandemic flu planning and coordination, what organizations can do to be better prepared, and how to tap available resources. Speakers include:

- Alameda County Public Health Director and County Health Officer
Dr. Anthony Iton
- California Department of Health Services' Dr. Howard Backer
- Alameda County Public Health Department Deputy Health Officer
Dr. Muntu Davis.

The morning presentations include a County Resource Coordination and Communications Panel with county experts.

Attendees can select three of the afternoon breakout sessions offered, which include:

- Security without a Bouncer
- SEMS/NIMS/Incident Command System—A First Responders Approach
- Risk Communications—Getting It Straight the First Time (...and What Happens If You Don't)
- Fatality Management—Addressing the Reality
- Dispensing Medicine to the Masses
- Mental Health in a Pan Flu Event
- Community Care—Keeping the Sick Home
- Caring for Patients—What Can the Health System Handle?
- Volunteers—How Do We Use Them?
